Meeting was called to order by Andy McCormick, President

OLD BUSINESS

- *Minutes from December meeting were not available-no one had questions or comments
- *Discussed filling the position of LCSC Vice-President

NEW BUSINESS

*AED's were discussed. Andy interested in having AED's in all schools. If a school has interest in an AED, a request needs to be submitted. Andy said he would talk with the schools that have interest and discuss fund raising activities to help with the cost of an AED *Dan Eiser noted that he has spoken with a county commissioner and discussed the possibility of the county to partially fund the cost of an AED *Andy noted that he would like for the Lawrence County Safety Council to be more visible in the community.

*If the Vice-President position is filled by next meeting-picture will be made of the officers for the newspaper.

*Discussed ways to gain new members.

~Membership Drive

~Andy to contact members that have not attended meetings to encourage them to attend *Discussed Safety month-members were asked to bring ideas to February Meeting *Tom Gattis mentioned our Web-host and some changes that are taking place. He will contact Don Brown our web-host for more information and keep us informed.

*Ginny Benson provided information regarding some changes taking place with the American Red Cross. Lawrence County American Red Cross will take on Wayne and Giles County.

Thank you Ginny and her volunteers, Jo Ann, Marilyn, Lois for the wonderful meal they prepared.

The soup was "DELISH"!!

TREASURER REPORT

Beth Keaton, Treasurer, was absent from the meeting

NEXT MEETING

Next meeting date is February 27th. Mary Sue Troop at Country Cottage will host.
